

Pittsburg State University

Student Life

Student Health Services

Nutritional Services

A licensed dietician has been contracted with the Crawford County Health Department to provide students with support regarding their dietary needs such as weight loss management, eating disorders, and special dietary information. The dietician will work individually with students to plan a program of nutritional services to meet their needs in compliance with state and licensing boards. A scheduled appointment is required for this visit. Appointments may be scheduled by calling 620-235-4452.